CELEBRATING STEUBENVILLE

- Community Focused.
Wooden Heart Follies features Steubenville businesses and institutions in its script.
- Both Familiar and New.
Wooden Heart Follies takes the Tchaikovsky Holiday Songs we all know and gives them a modern new twist with humorous lyrics.
- Appeals to grown-ups.
Family friendly, our jokes appeal to kids, but with a nod to their parents as well.
- Community Funded.
All our operating expenses come from you, the people of the Steubenville area.

Scene from 2022 production features the Baker, based on the Downtown Bakery's nutcracker, typical of the local references in Wooden Heart Follies.

SPONSORSHIPS

Donations to the 2023 production of Wooden Heart Follies in any amount will help bring this musical romp to the stage once more. Sponsorships at the levels listed below, however, will be listed in our program and posted in our lobby during the performance. Cultural events usually name their sponsorship levels after precious metals (Gold, silver, bronze). But since our nutcrackers favor wood, our sponsorship levels are:

- Oak: $2500
- Maple: $1000
- Cedar: $500
- Willow: $250
